

THINKING ABOUT WHAT YOU ARE READING

As you read the chapter, make notes on the following:

What do you notice or think might be important?

What are some of the facts and possible facts or things you are figuring out?

Make predictions about what will happen next.

Write down any questions about characters, action, or vocabulary you may have.

Write out any personal reactions you may have or how you feel about what a character did or what happened in the story.
